Dr. Franz C. Zitelmann, one-time German consul at Manila until the United States severed diplomatic relations with Germany, left on the Matson steamer Manoa at noon Tuesday for San Francisco

He is listed on the steamer's passenger list as Dr. Franz K. Zeitelman, but according to Manager F. W. Kle hahn of the shipping department of H. Hackfeld & Company, Ltd., who secured transportation for the doctor and his secretary, H. A. Raedler, the former consul's name on the ticket is written Franz C. Zitelmann. Dr. Zitelmann and his secretary have been staying in Honolulu since they arrived on the U.S. army transport Thomas the second week in March. They were to have left the Thomas at Nagasaki and gone to Peking, to which post the doctor had been transferred from Manila. The Japanese authorities refused to allow Zitelmann ashore and he had to come on to Honolulu. After he arrived here China severed diplomatic relations with Germany so the former

FOOD

Is cooked best when the cook has just the kind of heat she wants when she wants it. A Gas Range will respond with any degree or variation of heat, for the time it is needed.

Heat is confined to the stove itself; cook remains cool and collected, prepares more tasty viands and money is saved on the fuel bill.

You get the best food at the least cost, when you use Gas.

Where is Lum Leet, alias Ah Lit? Also his $1000?

His wife wants to know, The couple arrived on the inter-is land steamer Mauna Kea from Hito fice boy for a physician in the Crescent City, had with him $1000 which he had saved up from his wages. i um Leet and his wife, a part-Hawallan woman, took rooms somewhere in Chinatown. Wednesday night the Chinese said he was going out to take a walk around town. His wife has not seen him since. She thinks he has de-Korea Maru, but search of the passenger lists by Castle & Cooke's shipping department showed no man of that name as having gone on the boat.

The wife has applied to the police for assistance in locating her husband. She is said to have been given employment at the Kaiulani Home.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all visitors, town people and army and navy folk to attend the ninner-dance to be given at Heinie's Tavern, "on the beach at Waikiki," this evenin :.

Lum Dim, the Chinese of Hawaii KENNETH ALEXANDER now in prison under conviction of murder, continues to rail against the prison officials for not hanging him, says Sheriff William Jarrett.

The convicted man's cousin went to the prison this week to visit him. To him also Lun Dim related his woes "That man I killed is getting too far ahead of me," He is said to have told the relative, "What's the mat-
